On the way to Mariazell

There is a long tradition in Lower Austria of pilgrimaging to Mariazell on the many trails that lead there, but today these pilgrimages are gaining a resurgence of interest not only along the Camino de Santiago. The “modern” pilgrim relishes escaping stress, unwinding, being inspired by nature and reflecting on the meaning of life. The oldest pilgrimage trail in Austria is the Via Sacra, which leads from Vienna to Mariazell. Together with the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail 06 the Via Sacra is experiencing a renaissance of interest. It is the goal of this brochure to present this trail to our readers.

Timeout for body and soul

Hiking on ancient pilgrimage trails is fascinating for ever more people. Some yearn for the nearness to the divine, for a new path to Christian faith. Others want to enjoy the beauty of nature or return to a simpler, slower paced life. Others focus on the essential, and through the new experiences of confronting sun, wind and weather gain strength and inspiration.

Hiking through the network of the Via Sacra also means a journey through fascinating landscapes offering gorgeous views and sights – from the rolling hills of the Wienerwald to the unspoiled landscapes of the Triesting, Gölsen and Traisen valleys, to the impressive Ötscher-Tormäuer Nature Park in the world of the Mostviertel mountains. Some hikers undertake the trail in the traditional stages. Others grant themselves additional timeouts and spend a few days at selected points along the way before continuing on their way. Options for the return journey are the Mariazell rail line, which runs through the Pielach Valley to St. Pölten or the “Mariazeller Autobus” directly to Vienna.

Stopping to eat and sleep

The certified Via Sacra hosts offer places to stop to eat, drink and sleep. Choices range from full-service hotels to Spartan overnight hiker accommodations.

A list of all Via Sacra hosts can be found starting on page 27.

Pilgrimaging along the ways of the Lord in majestic scenery

There are two principal trails from Vienna to the “Magna Mater Austriae” in Mariazell: the Via Sacra or The Vienna Pilgrimage Trail. Along the way the pilgrim is rewarded with majestic natural and cultivated landscapes belonging to some of the most beautiful in all of Austria. The trails cover a distance of 120 to 130 kilometers (75-80 miles) in areas away from large tourist destinations. Hikers will travel through countless locations with many cultural treasures until they reach the Mariazell Basilica after a four to five-day hike. Throughout the centuries many “pilgrimage routes” have formed from single paths and roads. The most traditional of the Mariazell pilgrimage routes is the VIA SACRA, beginning in Vienna and traversing Hinterbrühl, Heiligenkreuz, Hafnerberg, Kaumberg, Hainfeld, Rohrbach, St. Veit, Lilienfeld, Türnitz, Annaberg, Joachimsberg, Josefsberg and Mitterbach on the way to Mariazell. There are numerous localities along the way that have profited from former flourishing pilgrimaging activity. The two religious centers are the monasteries Heiligenkreuz and Lilienfeld. Klein-Mariazell was also once among these centers but was closed down in the 18th century. It has since been revitalized. The Via Sacra has been traveled for more than 800 years by pilgrims from both Vienna and from Slavic and Hungarian speaking areas. Not only humble pilgrims but also princes and emperors have tread on the route of the pilgrims and greatly enhanced its significance.

The trailhead of the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail is in Perchtoldsdorf (yellow markers from the parish church) or Vienna-Rodaun (end of Vienna tram line 60). The official VIA SACRA trail markers do not start until Hinterbrühl. It is easiest to reach Hinterbrühl with public transportation.

Via Sacra – a picture book of Austrian landscape and culture

The historical route of the “Holy Road” today follows the federal highways 11, 18 and 20. Spiritual stations along the way are the monasteries of Heiligenkreuz, Klein-Mariazell and Lilienfeld as well as the pilgrimage church in Annaberg on the first “holy mount” of the Ötscher region. Among the other sacred objects on the way to Mariazell are the Spinnerin am Kreuz at the southern edge of Vienna, wayside shrines, chapels, and churches of art historical significance.

The Via Sacra Pilgrimage Trail of today passes through the historical pilgrimage stations while avoiding the main roads between them. Therefore the “Mariazeller Autobus” (from Südtiroler Square in Vienna over the A21 highway to Alland continuing along the Via Sacra, and as of Lilienfeld as express connection to St. Pölten on the Westautobahn) enables individual day hikes along the Via Sacra. The bus schedule is available online at www.postbus.at.

What you need to know:

The journey is a comfortable low-land hike with many art historical and anthropological stations. Because of the many low lying settlements with overnight accommodations the journey can easily be completed in four to five day stages of 25 to 30 kilometers (15.5 to 18.5 miles.) Departure points are the churches along the way.

Vienna Pilgrimage Trail – Hikers and Pilgrims on the same trail

The Vienna Pilgrimage Trail came into existence in 1975 with its designation 06 and its yellow trail markers by an initiative of the Austrian Alpine Hiking Society. As far as Kaumberg the trail follows close to the Via Sacra; it then deviates from the Via Sacra and continues on marked trails and by-roads through Unterberg, Rohr im Gebirge, and St. Aegydt am Neuwalde. Alternate routes are possible between Maria Raisenmarkt and Unterberg by way of Weissenbach, Furth and Muggendorf. These routes continue past scenic highlights and avoid the demanding climb between Araburg and Kieneck. The Lower Austrian Pilgrimage Trail connects the Via Sacra Trail to the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail via Türnitz and Walster.

What you need to know:

There are easy walking tours in the Wienerwald but more demanding trails in pre-Alpine areas around Kieneck and Unterberg. After Rohr im Gebirge mainly forest trails and byroads. Duration: four days of 30 kilometers (18.5 miles) each with some challenging segments.

Via Sacra: Day one. From Hinterbrühl* to Kaumberg

Hinterbrühl* – Heiligenkreuz – Mayerling – Maria Raisenmarkt – (Peilstein with possibility to join the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail) – Hafnerberg – (Thenneberg) – Klein-Mariazell – Kaumberg.

The marked trail (yellow signs with the words “Via Sacra”) begins in Hinterbrühl (Urlauberkreuz) near the Liechtenstein castle. It continues past the Seegrotte and the Höldrichsmühle to Mödlingbachtal and then, skirting the street, to Gaaden. The route continues in the direction of Siegenfeld through the woods at the “Weißes Kreuz” and finally reaches the monastery (3½ hours) by way of the Baroque Kalvarienberg. Via Mayerling the route continues to Maria Raisenmarkt and Holzschlag (possibility to reach Peilstein House with overnight accommodations in 2½ hours from Heiligenkreuz. The Vienna Pilgrimage Trail will take you to Hafnerberg in 1¼ hours and to Weissenbach-Furth-Muggendorf on Unterberg.) The pilgrimage church Hafnerberg is reached via Nöstach in three hours. From here the trail takes you past the formally closed and newly renovated convent of Klein-Mariazell and then along the St. Corona road to Kaumberg (3½ hours). An alternative route is the 2¾-hour paved bicycle path along the Triesting River via Altenmarkt and Thenneberg (pilgrimage church in the Dornau region) to Kaumberg.

Sights: Cistercian monastery Heiligenkreuz, Mount Carmel Mayerling, pilgrimage church Hafnerberg, the Klein-Mariazell Basilica, the museums of local history in Kaumberg, Araburg.

* Historically the Via Sacra began in Vienna at the Paulaner Church and continued past the Spinnerin am Kreuz to the Wienerwald, on to Heiligenkreuz and finally to Mariazell.

Via Sacra: Day two. From Kaumberg to Lilienfeld

Kaumberg – Hainfeld – Rohrbach – St. Veit – Lilienfeld

The trail continues from Kaumberg to Araburg (1 hour, hostel), where the two pilgrimage trails separate. The Via Sacra leads into the Gölsen Valley and on to Hainfeld and Rohrbach, continuing along the Gölsen River to St. Veit with its “Gölsen Valley Cathedral” (six hours from Kaumberg). Next is the very rewarding mountain trail with two successive ascents over Staff – Wiesenbach – Vordereben to Lilienfeld (3¼ hours). A less steep alternative leads through Traisen. The “St. Johann on Traisen” church is from the 12th century and the oldest in the Lilienfeld church district. Overnight accommodations are available in Lilienfeld or in St. Veit on Gölsen if the first day finished before Kaumberg (possibility to take the mountain route to Lilienfeld with enough time to inspect the monastery, adding one day to the hike).

Stift Lilienfeld

Sights: Municipal parish church of Saint Andreas in Hainfeld, parish church of Saint Veit in St. Veit, the geological open-air museum “St. Veit Stone Garden”, the “St. Johann on Traisen” church, the Cistercian monastery in Lilienfeld, the local county historical museum with the Zdarsky ski museum (open Thu., Sat., and Sun. 4-6 p.m. Groups by appointment. Via Sacra: Day three. From Lilienfeld via Türnitz and Siebenbrunn to “Tannberg” (Annaberg)

Virgin and Child with Saint Anne in the Annaberg pilgrimage church

Lilienfeld – Schrambach – Freiland – Lehenrotte – Türnitz – Annaberg

The stretch in the Traisen Valley via Schrambach – Freiland – Lehenrotte to Türnitz generally proceeds along flat hiking and biking paths (4 hours). Through the “wide woods” of the Türnitz Ravine with Baroque Stations of the Cross and past the chapel in Siebenbrunn a newly constructed trail with a series of bridges leads to the foot of the Annaberg. A mountain path takes you to the Anna Pilgrimage Church in Annaberg, the first “sacred mountain” with a picturesque view of Mount Ötscher. With Annaberg the plateau of the Mariazell region has been crested. A majestic panorama of the mountain world of Lower Austria and Styria now accompanies you as you pass along the “sacred mountains” to the Mariazell Basilica. Overnight accommodations are available in Annaberg.

The Falkenschlucht alternative (the Lower Austrian Pilgrimage Trail): This route beginning in Türnitz (overnight accommodations) proceeds away from thoroughfares through charming forest landscapes and leads into the “Falken Ravine”, an object of great natural beauty with newly erected footbridges, finally emerging in Ulreichsberg. The trail connects here with the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail making it the shorter path to Mariazell; from Türnitz to Mariazell it is 8½ hours. There is also the possibility after the Falken Ravine to leave the Lower Austrian Pilgrimage Trail and via the marked trail “Annaberg over Ebenbaueralm” to return to Annaberg on the Via Sacra (Türnitz – Annaberg: 5½ hours).

Sights: Parish churches Lehenrotte and Türnitz, Siebenbrunn chapel with pilgrim fountain, Annaberg pilgrimage church, St. Mary grotto and the Innereben grotto in the Falken Ravine.

Via Sacra: Day four. From Annaberg over the “Sacred Mountains” to Mariazell

Joachimsmberg Baroque church

Annaberg – Joachimsmberg – Wienerbruck – Josefsberg – Mitterbach – St. Sebastian – Mariazell

In Annaberg the trail first takes us along the Stations of the Cross, which were patterned in monotype by Professor Sepp Gamsjäger, leading to the chapel with the Baroque pieta “Annabründl.” The Lassing Valley path leads to the Joachim Church on the “second sacred mountain” and to Wienerbruck. At a distance from the federal highway one continues along the Josefsberg, the “third sacred mountain.” Worth a visit here are the wall paintings in the presbytery that depict woodcutters in the Ötscher virgin forest around 1830. From here the trail takes us to Mitterbach along the Erlauf River, which forms the Lower Austrian border (4 hours). Having arrived in Styria we find the Sebastian Church on the “fourth sacred mountain.” Now the trail follows along the captivating Sebastian way with its rosary wayside shrines to Mariazell (two hours). This last stage of the journey is easily accomplished in one day. The return trip to Vienna is possible with the “Mariazell Autobus” (departing already at approximately 4 p.m.) or with the Mariazell rail line to St. Pölten and from there with the Austrian Federal Railways to Vienna.

Hiker on the Josefsberg

Sights: Joachimsmberg Baroque church with its Baroque high altar, the parish church of Josefsberg, the Josefsberg presbytery with its secco paintings by father Chrysostomus Sandweger of the world of the woodcutters, the Catholic and Protestant parish churches in Mitterbach.

Vienna Pilgrimage Trail: Day one. From Perchtoldsdorf to Kaumberg

Hafnerberg pilgrimage church

Perchtoldsdorf (starting at the parish church or the Waldsanatorium) or Vienna-Rodaun (Line 60) – Franz Ferdinand-Schutzhaus – Teufelsteiner-/Kammersteinerhütte – Wildegg – Sittendorf – Heiligenkreuz – Mayerling – Maria Raisenmarkt – (possibility to take turnoff to Peilstein) – Hafnerberg – Klein-Mariazell – Kaumberg

The trail begins at the parish church in Perchtoldsdorf and leads through the Föhrenberge nature park to the Wildegg Castle. It is also possible to begin the hike in Vienna-Rodaun (line 60) at the Waldsanatorium continuing across the Perchtoldsdorf heather. The Heiligenkreuz monastery is reached via Sittendorf and Füllenberg followed by the Kalvarienberg (four hours). The separation of paths in Holzschlag comes after Mayerling and Maria Raisenmarkt. One path leads to the Hafnerberg pilgrimage church via Nöstach (three hours). The other, shorter, path leads along the Triesting River to Kaumberg via Altenmarkt and Thenneberg (2½ hours). A lengthier alternative is the route from Hafnerberg past the renovated Klein-Mariazell Basilica and along the St. Corona Road to Kaumberg (3½ hours). Overnight accommodations are available in the valley segment in Altenmarkt, Kaumberg, or Klein-Mariazell (extending, however, day two of the tour).

Sights: Church in Sittendorf, Cistercian monastery in Heiligenkreuz, Hafnerberg pilgrimage church, Mariazell Minor Basilica, Altenmarkt church and the pilgrimage church of the Dornau region, castle ruins in Araburg, the St. Michael parish church in Kaumberg

Vienna Pilgrimage Trail: Day two. From Kaumberg to Rohr/Geb. or Kalte Kuchl. Alternatively Weissenbach – Furth – Muggendorf

Kaumberg – Araburg – Kieneck – Unterberg – Rohr/Gebirge – Kalte Kuchl/Kleinzell
Alternatively: Weissenbach – Furth – Muggendorf – Unterberg

After reaching Araburg easily in one hour from the Kaumberg hostel, the Vienna Pilgrimage Trail begins to climb. It continues along a mountain ridge with a steep ascent to the Kieneck and the Enzian lodge (3½ hours) followed by a somewhat easier passage to the Unterberg House (2 hours). At Unterberg the pre-Alpine highpoint of the tour is reached. From here the trail leads down to the valley to Rohr im Gebirge (2 hours). There are overnight accommodations in the inns in Rohr im Gebirge or in the Alpine hotel Kalte Kuchl/Kleinzell.

Alternative Peilstein – Furth (overnight stay in Peilstein House, in Weissenbach or Furth) – Muggendorf: This trail leads from Maria Raisenmarkt to the Peilstein House (3 hours from Heiligenkreuz) via Neuhaus to Weissenbach/Triesting and to Furth/Schromenau (3 hours). Here there is another separation of paths – the direct route through the Further and Staff gorge ascending steeply to the Kieneck with the Enzian lodge (3½ hours) and to the Unterberg House (2 hours). More interesting and easier is the trail through the Steinwand gorge via the Jagasitz/Kreuth Inn to Thal and the Karnerwirt Inn above the Myra falls in Muggendorf followed by the Unterberg House (6 hours).

Sights: Neuhaus parish church, Weissenbach parish church, the Triesting Valley local historical museum, the Steinwand Ravine with the Türkenloch, the Myra falls, the Vincent chapel in Thal, the Unterberg chapel, The Via Sacra chapel and the Kalte Kuchl woodcutter museum.

Vienna Pilgrimage Trail: Day three. From Rohr im Gebirge to either St. Aegy or Gscheid

Rohr im Gebirge – Kalte Kuchl/Kleinzell – Tiefental – Hochreit – St. Aegy/Neuwalde – (Gscheid)

A direct path leads from Rohr to Kalte Kuchl in Kleinzell with the Alpine inn Rieder (1½ hours). From here the relatively flat trail (without hostelry, however) continues to Werasöd into the remote areas of the green and arid Schwarza. From Tiefental the trail runs through the Finstergrund Ravine to the first mountainous stretch of day three entailing passing by a gully at Hochreit on the way to the Traisen Valley. From here to St. Aegy the trail moves along forest paths and byroads (4 hours). After a moderately steep climb the Wald Ravine of the Unrechtraisen River leads to Kernhof Gscheid (2½ hours). The last overnight accommodations before Mariazell are available in St. Aegy or Gscheid. From St. Aegy there is the option of walking directly to Gscheid via Kernhof (overnight accommodations). The official trail provides for two alternatives – via Rubesfang (n.b. Walk in the opposite direction of the trail markers) or via the Weißenbach Valley and Luegg; this alternative is of unusual scenic beauty and remote from highway traffic.

The (asphalt) trail continues along the Hubertus Lake up to the Friar Klaus Church (2½ hours). Highlights along the Via Sacra

Heiligenkreuz monastery

In the year 1133 the Margrave Saint Leopold III was pressed by his son Otto to send Cistercian monks from the Morimond monastery in France to spiritually and economically develop the large wooded area in the Sattelbach Valley. The monks not only introduced important initiatives in the areas of agriculture and forestry, but also in the crafts. After a slow start the monastery prospered. The Roman nave of the monastery church was consecrated already in 1187, and the Gothic choir stalls in 1295. The cloister with chapter house, the fraterie (workroom), dormitory and fountain were all constructed in the 13th century. Of special artistic interest are the glass paintings in Grisaille technique. After his pilgrimage to Jerusalem in the year 1182 Duke Leopold V. returned with a fragment of the Holy Cross and turned over the relict to the monastery. Today the Heiligenkreuz monastery is a vibrant spiritual center in the Vienna Woods served by over 80 monks

Timeout for body and soul.

The lure of pilgrimage hiking. The traditional Via Sacra leads from Hinterbrühl by Vienna via Kaumberg in the Wienerwald to Lilienfeld and Annaberg in the Mostviertel before it reaches its goal in Mariazell. The Vienna Pilgrimage Trail 06, the “younger” and more challenging alternative runs from Perchtoldsdorf by Vienna to Kaumberg, continuing to Rohr im Gebirge, St. Aegy in the upper Traisen Valley to Mariazell. The best addresses for eating, drinking and sleeping are the certified Via Sacra hosts presented to you in this folder.
